

In the Gazebo

Charles Campagne's Second Grade had their first Book Club Discussion Group in the gazebo. Each child read the book entitled, The Pain and the Great One by Judy Blume. We discussed the different points of view between the brother and sister and related it to different points of view we share in our own families. We enjoyed snacks while we talked.