

Math Club

Ms. Ostrom's Fifth Grade Math Club baked pumpkin muffins on December 8th. The students learned that reading a recipe includes understanding units of measurement and fractions. The students learned that math is an important part of our everyday lives. The students enjoyed participating in this activity.

